While the Eduardo's group of restaurants may be very different in style and setting, they have two very important things in common: exquisite cuisine and impeccable service. The Eduardo's brand was established on the Costas in the year 2001, with the opening of 'Eduardo's Restaurant' in the pleasant surroundings of Villamartin Plaza.

Its launch had a huge impact on the local Bar and Restaurant industry, challenging the notion that diners are best satisfied with 'cheap pub grub' and instead delivering fine cuisine at realistic prices. Restaurant Owners Edward and Deborah Wright and their two sons Edward and Elliott really know how to take care of their clients, and their fine attention to detail is reflected in every aspect of the dining experience, from the personal greeting received on arrival, to the insistence on allowing only the freshest, finest ingredients into their kitchens and attentive service provided throughout the meal.

Eduardo's La Finca

Situated about 25 minutes' drive from Quesada, this is not the cheapest of restaurants, however, it's a great night out. The restaurant is in a large walled garden. There is a swimming pool, bar area and outside seating with benches formed around palm trees. Interesting lighting effects and lots of atmosphere. You start with a drink or two in the garden and are then called when your table is ready. The dining tables are under cover in an open sided building to the side and all overlook the garden. The food is very good indeed – international in style. People tend to dress up smartly here and stay for the whole evening. There are often entertainers (of varying quality) who start singing about 10pm. It is usually necessary to make a reservation. Lunch served 12:00 – 4:00pm Evening 7:30pm – 10:00pm.
