

Quesada Commercial Centre La Laguna

Indian Ocean Restaurant

THERE ARE plenty of Indian restaurants in and around the Costa Blanca, but there are precious few which can claim to serve authentic British curries. The British curry has a style and a taste very much its own, and requires knowledge and training from the UK to be able to reproduce it properly. To taste a totally authentic British curry, cunningly crafted using spices imported straight from the UK, pop down to the Indian Ocean restaurant at Doña Pepa and let Mohsin and his team take care of you. You won't be disappointed!
