

RESTAURANT BARLOVENTO

The Boat Restaurant

If you are looking for a good fish restaurant in the Torrevieja area, look no further this is a very upmarket restaurant split between an air-conditioned main building and a fabulous palm thatched area overlooking the beach and bay. The menu is extensive, specialising mainly in seafood. While many dishes are very expensive, that's not universal and it's possible to get really good food much more cheaply. Situated very close to the Old Tower or Torrevieja, between Torrevieja town and La Mata. Barlovento is underneath a rather dilapidated apartment block and not somewhere you would "happen upon". But this is a hidden gem of a place especially the Tapas Bar. You sit around the bar area where they put out table cloths for you and choose from the many Tapas available. The food is fabulous - the house wine delicious - the service excellent.
